

Completed tasks

1-preparing lectures and computerized educational materials on mushroom cultivation

- Nutritional value and methods of cooking mushrooms
- The cultivation of mushrooms
- Species of toxic and dangerous mushrooms
- Conservation and packaging of mushrooms

2-preparing lectures and computerized educational materials on Biocide

- Danger of chemical pesticides and their impact on the environment and biota
- Advantages and disadvantages of chemical pesticides and Biocides
- Biofertilization and organic agriculture
- Preparation and spraying of Biocides

3- Volunteers were trained to grow mushrooms

4- A field visit to the greenhouses of medicinal plants protection project for the application of biocide

Manager of the unit during the training of volunteers

*Volunteers during the washing of rice straw
Volunteers during the processing of the cradle of agriculture*

Visit of project manager for place of training and participation with volunteers working to encourage them protection project Manager of saint katherine service center with manager of medicinal plants