

Report of November 2008

- 1- Making a cultural competition between groups of students at the center.
- 2- Making a drawing competition between groups of students at the center, the best draws will be printed in a book for children.
- 3- Visiting of foreign universities to the center (10-13 November 2008).
- 4- Students plant some trees and plants in center garden to decrease population and increase awareness about the importance of plants.