

Report of may 2008

The culture and heritage unit playing an important role in the city of saint Katherine due to the awareness lectures held to raise the knowledge of the Bedouins and the local community, this month the unit prepared the essential steps for the celebration of the environmental day through holding a meeting in the city schools and the youth center.

Details:

- 1. The unit co operated with the youth center in saint Katherine to prepare for the celebration of environmental day and the subject of the day was" lets break the usual for an economy less depending on carbon".
- 2. The celebrity of the environmental day will be arranged according to a time table including the program of the day.
- 3. Participating in the conference held by the SSRDP and its workshop which discussed "training on financial management for non financials".
- 4. Arranging a training program for the talented kids to enhance their skills in drawing.
- 5. a pamphlets and publications about the environment published in saint Katherine to stimulate the local inhabitants to save their environment and their city clean .