

Report

Unit water quality and soil for the month of January 2008

The unit of the quality of water and soil has a key role to the status of social services and environmental St. Catherine, where shows how important the views of nomads through the region after they meet that unit interest in the follow-up and analysis, water treatment and soil to determine the status of water and soil which provide analytical services, extension and outreach to them and explain the environmental and health risks when handling or use of such contaminated water both for drinking or agriculture. One of the most important tasks undertaken by the research team unity during the month of January 2008 as following:

- 1. Surveying of the inventory of most existing wells in St. Catherine area and took readings to determine those sites (wells) by geographic monitoring devices (Global Positioning System GPS) with the help of Saint Catherine protectorate until receipt of the special status.
- 2. Identify the unit head for the public information section of lecturing extension and awareness of human health and environmental safety and the optimum use and quality of water and soil in the St. Catherine area.
- 3. Announcement of a lecture on the objectives of the unit and the services will make to the people of the region and surrounding areas of St. Catherine.
- 4. Saint Catherine area declaration on the establishment and the establishment of the unity of service to provide services analysis of water and soil status of social services by low price to all farmers and surrounding parts of Saint Catherine areas.
- 5. Announcement of the possibility of training volunteers, some professionals unity on the most important types of analyses and laboratory methods to estimate chemical and natural in which to determine the extent of water quality and soil fertility region.
- 6. Settling of pool next to the establishment of the proposed site to establish the station assisted the staff of city council.
- 7. Examine the treatment plant and follow-up action of connections to well of El Zitona.