

Water and soil quality unit

Report April 2008

The most important tasks done by the team of the unit are:

1. a meeting with Dr : Omar morad in Wadi Feran for showing the services introduced by the unit and marketing for the unit services done by Dr: kamel Abdullah also to show the targets of the center and different types of analysis available in the unit in order to achieve a cooperation between the two sides.
2. Collection of water sample from Wadi Feran by Dr:kamel Abdullah to be tested for bacteria as requested by Dr: Omar Morad and the result report is included with the report.
3. a group of students(Faculty of science – Mansoura university) visited the center and listened to a lecture about the center ,its units and the services introduced to the Bedouins in saint Katherine and the surrounding areas.
4. the monthly check of water produced from Al Zaitona well is done and a chemical and bacteriological tests is done .
5. the project manager and some of the project team participated in the celebration in the American university in Cairo to announce about the center ,its activity and its different community and environmental services.
6. the manager of water quality unit met with Prof :Abdulaziz hegazy and informed him about the environmental and community services introduced by the center and he expressed his happiness to see that effort and he wanted a CD containing all the information and achievements done by the project to be included in the best 20 associations working in the developmental field for Sinai Bedouins , beside participation in gallery to show the Bedouins hand crafts , plants and medicinal species within the celebration program of Sinai re taking .

7. the unit manager met with Mrs.: Sekina fouaad at Cairo to discuss some of the environmental problems in the canal sector and Sinai in order to inform the people about it through the Egyptian journals and to receive a litter from the project manager to tell her that she was chosen to be in the higher consult of the project and she accepted the offer.
8. the unit announced about an awareness lecture for the preparatory and secondary schools students under the title “ fresh water pollution and its effects on human health” to be presented by the unit manager on Wednesday 17 , April ,2008 inside there schools . _